2. Access commitment

Cheshire Cricket Board have a commitment to provide access for learners with particular needs to prevent discrimination in the delivery of qualifications¹, courses and workshops in accordance with the Equality Act 2010.

Cheshire Cricket Board therefore ensure accessible services, making reasonable adjustments and applying special consideration where this is required to facilitate learners in the completion of qualifications, courses and workshops as independently as possible.

Access arrangements ensure that reasonable adjustments and special considerations reduce substantial disadvantage caused due to a learner's disability or difficulty.

Access Type	Definition
Reasonable adjustment definition	Reasonable adjustments are any arrangements made prior to the delivery qualification, course or workshop to reduce the effect of a permanent, long-term or temporary disability, a learning difficulty, illness or indisposition permanent disability or difficulty that places a learner at a substantial disadvantage. These arrangements are required to be authorised by the awarding organisation. It is confirmed that the awarding organisation 1st4sport manage all reasonable adjustment requests for 1st4sport qualifications and also as a service provided to the ECB for ECB awarded qualifications.
Special consideration definition	Special consideration is the implementation of arrangements during or after the delivery of a qualification, course or workshop to enable those with temporary difficulties to have their situation considered. Specifically where learners are required to be assessed special consideration may enable learners who have been disadvantaged or were unable to attend specific components due to emotional/physical difficulties or adverse circumstances. These arrangements are required to be authorised by the awarding organisation. It is confirmed that the awarding organisation 1st4sport manage all special consideration requests for 1st4sport qualifications and also as a service provided to the ECB for ECB awarded qualifications.

3. Access Arrangements

Cheshire Cricket Board are committed to contributing helping learners to managing their individual situation; creating an accessible learning and assessment environment for all. In order for this to be achieved, Cheshire Cricket Board aims to identify learners' particular requirements and requests for the provision of access arrangements at an early stage. To ensure sure access to fair delivery and assessment, treating all learners equally Cheshire Cricket Board intends to:

- ensure the access to fair assessment statement and practice are understood and complied with by all relevant staff also by learners
- promote equality within of each learning programme and in the conduct of any assessment
- adhere to related procedures and regulations regarding reasonable adjustments and special consideration; requesting permission to grant these for each learner from 1st4sport after providing appropriate evidence to support each case
- ensure buildings and assessment sites used for delivery and assessment are accessible to all learners, as far as is practicable
- ensure appropriate equipment/personnel (including technological equipment or any assistant personnel, i.e. reader, scribe, practical assistant, etc) is available for selected adjustments to delivery and assessment
- use assistive equipment or staff within the reasonable adjustments framework, as outlined by 1st4sport and the ECB, without disadvantaging others who are not affected by particular requirements.

4. Access Request Procedure

The following procedure is relevant to all those registered onto a 1st4sport or an ECB awarded qualification, course or workshop.

Stage	Reasonable Adjustments	Special Considerations
Stage 1:	Each learner must request reasonable adjustments from the CCB at the application stage. Failure to do so may impact upon the ability to put arrangements in place in time. This information will be passed to the Equality Officer who will evaluate the request and will liaise with the learner to validate their difficulty/disability and to ensure the relevant reasonable adjustments are identified. At this stage, the learner must provide all necessary evidence (medical evidence/certification, diagnostic test results, a testimony from the invigilator/tutor/assessor or any other appropriate professional person who is familiar with the learner) to support their request. Validated requests will then be forwarded to 1st4sport. For invalidated outcomes, no further action will be taken and the learners will be informed.	The learner must request all special considerations by contacting the centre's appointed Equality Officer within 20 working days of the need for consideration arising. Failure to do so will render the request invalid. The Equality Officer will evaluate the need for the special consideration. At this stage, the learner must provide all necessary evidence (medical evidence/certification, diagnostic test results, testimony from the invigilator/tutor/assessor or any other professional person who is familiar with the learner) to enable their request to be validated. Validated requests will then be forwarded to 1st4sport. For invalidated requests, no further action will be taken and the learners will be informed.
Stage 2:	The Equality Officer will request reasonable adjustments or special considerations from 1st4sport in accordance with the standard procedure. All requests for both 1st4sport and ECB awarded qualifications are handled by 1st4sport.
Stage 3:	The Equality Officer will ensure all reasonable adjustments and special consideration are implemented in accordance with outcomes confirmed by 1st4sport. They will evaluate the implementation and audit all outcomes. All records relating to the application, relevant evidence and monitoring forms are securely retained for a minimum of five years.
