

DIVISION 1

Batting Award – Most Runs

Heidi Cheadle (Lindow) 674 runs

Ellie Mason (Leigh) 672

Kirsten Smith (Leigh) 441

Roshini Prince-Navaratnam (Didsbury) 408

Grace Michell (Nantwich) 321

A number of late cancelled matches denied Heidi Cheadle and Ellie Mason the chance to break Mason's own record for the most runs in a season, which is 752, achieved when she was a Stockport Trinity player in 2022. These are, however, the second and third highest runs aggregates to date.

Best Batting Average

Ellie Mason 112

Heidi Cheadle 96.29

Holly Topp (Lindow) 92.67

Kirsten Smith 63

Grace Michell 53.5

Holly Topp's average – from just five innings – suggests what she and her club might have achieved had she not been injured for a significant period, as she was still the sixth highest run scorer in spite of her abbreviated season.

No one makes this team as an all-rounder – although Ellie Mason was the fifth highest wicket taker, she is much further down the rankings based on average, economy rate and strike rate.

Roshini Prince-Navaratnam and Grace Michell tied for a batting spot based on the points system, with Prince-Navaratnam getting the nod as her highest score of the year was higher than that of Michell.

DIVISION 2

One of Leyland's strengths as they finished with a 100 percent record, indeed Isobel Cordingley was sixth in this list, so they claimed five of the top six spots.

Isobel Cordingley 16.36
